              THE CLERK: Criminal Cause for Arraignment, 18-M-
    132, United States v. Keith Raniere.
 3
              Counsel, state your appearances, please.
 4
              MS. PENZA: Moira Kim Penza and Tanya Hajjar for the 5
    United States. Good afternoon, Your Honor.
 6
 7
              THE COURT: Good afternoon.
 8
              MS. PENZA: With us at counsel table is Special Agent Michael Winniger [Ph.], Special Agent Michael Lever 9
10
    [Ph.] and New York State Trooper Charles Fontinelli [Ph.].
11
              THE COURT: Good afternoon.
              MR. AGNIFILO: Good afternoon, Your Honor. I'm Marc 12
13
    Agnifilo. I represent Keith Raniere. With me is Paul 14
    DerOhannesian and Jacob Kaplan. We all represent the 15 defendant, Mr. Raniere. Good afternoon, Your Honor.
              THE COURT: Good afternoon. Good afternoon, Mr.
16
    Raniere.
17
18
              THE DEFENDANT:
                              Good afternoon.
              THE COURT: The purpose of this proceeding is to 19 make sure you understand the charges that have been brought 20 21 against you, to advise you of certain rights have you have and 22 to address the question of whether you can be released on 23 bail.
24
              First, you have the right to an attorney to represent you in this case. If you cannot afford an attorney 25
```

```
3
    the Court will provide one at no cost to you.
1
 2
              You're retained I assume, Counsel.
              MR. AGNIFILO: Yes, Your Honor.
 3
              THE COURT: If that changes at any point you can 4
 5
   make an application to the Court for a court appointed attorney.
 6
 7
              You have the right to remain silent. You're not 8 required to make any statements. If you have made any statements you need not say any more. If you do decide to 9 10 make a statement you can stop at any time but any statements you do make aside from statements you make to your attorney 11 12 can be used against you. Do you understand that, Mr. Raniere?
13
              THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
              THE COURT: Okay. Have you seen a copy of the 14
15
    complaint that has been filed against you in this case?
                              Yes, Your Honor.
16
              THE DEFENDANT:
17
              THE COURT: Counsel, have you reviewed the complaint 18 with your client and does he understand the charges that are 19 contained therein?
              MR. AGNIFILO: We have reviewed it and he does 20 21 understand.
                 Thank you, Your Honor.
22
              THE COURT: I've reviewed the Government's letter in 23 connection with this proceeding and request for a permanent 24 order of detention. Counsel, do you wish to be heard on the 25
    issue?
```

```
4
              MR. AGNIFILO: At this point we are not making any 1
 2
    release application. We reserve our right of course to make 3
    an application at a future time but at this point as Mr.
    Raniere has only been in the district a couple of days we are 4
   not forward with a request at this point.
 5
              THE COURT: Okay. In light of the nature of the 6
 7
    charges and the evidence laid out in the Government's letter 8 the Court is going to issue a permanent order of detention but with leave to reopen if you are in a position later to make a 9 10 bail application.
11
              MR. AGNIFILO: Thank you.
              THE COURT: What's the defendant's position with 12
13
    respect to the preliminary hearing?
              MR. AGNIFILO: We are not waiving anything, Your 14
15
    Honor.
              THE COURT: Let's schedule the preliminary hearing.
16
17
              THE CLERK: April 25th at eleven a.m.
18
                        [Pause in proceedings.]
19
              MS. PENZA: Your Honor -- 20
              THE CLERK:
                          April 27th at eleven a.m.
21
              MR. AGNIFILO: That's good for us, Your Honor.
22
    Thank you.
23
              THE COURT:
                         Okay. Anything further?
24
              MS. PENZA: Not from the Government, Your Honor.
25
              MR. AGNIFILO: Thank you very much.
```

```
